NEW BUSINESS:

a) Fire Department Accommodation Awards

After thanking the Board for rescheduling this special meeting, Chief Dan Reynolds announced two accommodations. One is recognition for Sgt. Charles Moore, retiring after 33 years of distinguished service on the Armada Township Fire Department. Lt. Kevin Kanehl gave a speech highlighting Sgt. Moore's distinguished service. On behalf of the entire fire department, Firefighter Justin Malburg and Lt. Kanehl, presented Sgt. Moore with a clock in the symbol of the Armada Township Fire Department's official logo.

The second accommodation from Chief Dan Reynolds was a Life Saving-EMS Award presented to Lt. Kevin Kanehl, Firefighter James McKinnon, Firefighter John Msal, and Firefighter Michael Panczyk for saving the life of Macomb County Road Commission worker from a serious electrocution accident, which occurred on January 27, 2017.

Macomb County Commissioner, Don Brown also presented them with a Declaration of Tribute from the Macomb County Board of Commissioners and also a Certificate of Special Congressional Recognition signed by Congressman Paul Mitchell.
