OPEN PUBLIC HEARING: Motion by Swiacki seconded by Paterek to open public hearing at 7:01 p.m.

Motion CARRIED

Public Comments:

Monica Job: What kind of fees would tax payers have if the fees were added to the tax roll. Would there be any savings? How do tax payers opt out and will the transfer site be made open and for how long? If it is closed how much of a savings will it save tax payers. What will be done with the transfer site property. Will they be forced to go along with a single waste hauler? What is average number that utilize transfer site? She utilizes the transfer site.

Gail Hicks: Spent $326.16 in 2020 with Waste Management curb side only no recycling. In 2021 spent $362.85 and 2022-2023 renewed for $422.81. Very interested to see what the bids come at and if she might save anything.

Kevin Grand: Uses the transfer site and has no issues. Would like transfer site kept open.

Kathy Markel: Lives in the Village of Armada and uses the transfer site for recycling.

Clerk Swiacki read letters/emails received from the following residents:

Kathryn Lucas: 73401 McFadden Rd. – In favor of single waste hauler

Diana Morgan: 74745 Burk Street – Not in favor of single waste hauler.
